Behavior Level Reduction Request (BLRR) - Instructions

Students reaching Infraction Levels for not following MAT's School-Wide Behavior Expectations can reduce their levels through showing change in their behavior. In order to show documentation of these changes, the following procedures must be followed:

1. Attend 15 consecutive school days without receiving any infractions, warnings or referrals.
2. Complete this Behavior Level Review Request (BLRR) form- including receiving each teacher's approval signature.
3. Within five school days of completion of the 15 days without fines or referrals, submit BLRR form to administration.
4. Once all of the previously mentioned steps are completed, the level reduction will go into effect.

*Abuse of this system, may result in reduction of level being denied.
