Complete the tasks below on a separate sheet of paper, staple them to your application, and turn them in to Ms. Naylor.

Task 1:

Answer the question below. There is no writing length requirement/expectation.

Critical thinking brainteasers have been created to assess candidates on the following key skills...

- Problem Solving. Can you at least attempt to solve problems on your own?
- Analysis. Can you look at the big picture and analyze all the available information to find a solution?
- Creativity. Do you think outside the box? Sometimes, all it takes is a little bit of creative thinking or looking at things in a different way.

Task 2:

Historical Context Assessment

*You must complete the AP Assessment. The essay must be typed and stapled to this application when it is turned into Ms. Naylor. Please read the assessment carefully and follow all directions.

This question is designed to test your ability to think critically in a historical context. This should be 3-4 paragraphs.

Evaluate the cause, as well as the positive and negative effects, of your favorite event in history. Make sure you tell me about the event and analyze key details. You can use source material but make sure you document your sources.

Tip- Do not tell me WHY it is your favorite event, explain it in such a way that I will come to the conclusion on my own.
